

Question Bank

Class 10 English

Foreword

With a view to support teachers in the endeavour to move away from a culture of rote learning and impact pedagogy in the classroom, CBSE is delighted to share this Resource for Teachers in English Language and Literature for Class X. Exemplar questions from each chapter of both the books have been prepared. These exemplar questions are for the question number 3,4,10,11,12, and 13 of the Sample Question Paper 2020-21 and have been numbered accordingly.

This resource will equip teachers and learners to become familiar with the new patterns and understand, acquire and practice the requisite skills and competencies listed in the curriculum. It will also serve as a guideline for teachers to prepare a question bank individually and collaboratively.

As you will observe, the questions in the document are not based on mere recall or rudimentary comprehension. Rather, they have been designed to foster in students the skill to think critically and creatively with a focus on inferential abilities.

It is important to note that the larger intent of this resource is providing to teachers an indicative framework to conceptualise and practice analysis-based learning and problem solving. It is hoped that the questions herein will also enable teachers to reflect on their teaching practices, and promote a movement away from 'teaching to the test' towards a focus on the process of discovery, openness, imaginative engagement and activity-based learning in the ways that they bring the text to the child, as much as the child to the text.

It is our belief that the potential of the Language and Literature curriculum to stimulate learners and teachers can be glimpsed in this Resource. We hope that teachers will welcome this document as a reminder of this potential, and find in it a ready resource not only to equip their students, but to jumpstart their own thinking and engagement processes.

Q10	Answer in 20-30 words
i	People get support from family and friends during bad times. How does Lencho's family behave after the harvest is ruined?
ii	'Lencho was an ox of a man, working like an animal in the fields, but still he knew how to write.' What does this line tell us about the norm amongst such farmers, then?
iii	What, according to you would have been the likely reaction of Lencho's wife upon knowing about him writing an actual letter to God?

iv	Lencho waited eagerly for a reply to his letter to God. Do you think the postmaster was also very keen to know Lencho's reaction upon receiving the 'reply'?
Q11	Answer in 40-50 words
i	'The field was white, as if covered with salt.' This is how the field is described after the hailstorm. The pelting hailstones could have been easily seen as sugar cubes. Do you think comparing it with sugar would have been more appropriate? Why/ Why not?
ii	Lencho and his family knew the implications the hailstorm would have on their lives. Write a conversation between Lencho and his wife as they watched the downpour turn to a hailstorm.
iii	Lencho did not bother exploring any other means to resolve his situation but just turned to God. Do you feel that his approach was justified? Why/Why not?
Q12	Answer in 100-120 words (beyond text and across texts)
i	The people at the post-office contribute to put together whatever they can manage, for Lencho. (a) What do you think was the main reason behind their help? Would you have done the same if you were one of the employees? (b) As an employee, write about your perspective and reason(s) for contributing to the fund. The fact that you don't want to say 'no' to a cause initiated by your boss, can also be an equally compelling reason!
ii	Read the given anecdote and analyse the similarities and differences with reference to 'A Letter to God'. A very poor woman called-in a radio station asking for help from God. A non-believer, also listening to this radio program, decided to make fun of the woman. He got her address, called his secretary and ordered her to buy food and take it to the woman. However, the instruction was: "When the woman asks who sent the food, tell her that it's from the devil." When the secretary arrived at the woman's house, the woman was very happy and grateful for the help. The Secretary then asked her, "Don't you want to know who sent the food?" The woman replied, "No, I don't even care because when God orders, even the devil obeys!"
iii	The postmaster was a representative of God. Evaluate this statement in the context of your understanding of 'A Letter to God'.

Q10	Answer in 20-30 words
i	How would you describe the mood of the story, 'Black Aeroplane' as it begins?
ii	Look at the given image. Briefly evaluate the narrator's decision to not go back to Paris with reference to the image.
iii	Do you think that after his experience, the narrator would be able to truly enjoy the English breakfast he had yearned for? Why/ Why not?
iv	What do you think prompted the narrator to act like "an obedient child"?
Q11	Answer in 40-50 words
i	As a reader, do you feel betrayed or let down in the way the story ends? Validate your opinion.
ii	Based on your reading, would you call the narrator a family man? Justify your stance.
iii	James Lane Allen says, "Adversity reveals character". What do you learn about the narrator from the experience? Mention any two traits supported by the textual evidence.
Q12	Answer in 100-120 words (beyond text and across texts)
i	Imagine that the narrator shared his story with friends and family once he got home. One of them, a spiritual leader, decided to incorporate the story as part of his weekly sermon to the congregation. Another friend, a psychologist, worked the story into his next lecture on survival instinct and crisis management. Do you think the two interpretations of the story would be different? If so, how? What insights might the narrator get about his mysterious experience, if he were to attend both the sessions?
ii	In a parallel world, the pilot of the black aeroplane narrates his adventure in a story titled 'The Old Dakota'. You come across an excerpt from the story, which responds to the ending questions of 'Black Aeroplane' and describes the black aeroplane pilot's decision to fly away after watching the Dakota land.

	Compose the said excerpt of the story employing relevant details from 'Black Aeroplane'.
iii	A few days after the experience, the narrator sat with his wife and recalled a long conversation he'd had with his young son the day before. The narrator's son had spoken to him about his close friend, Freddie, and the many ways Freddie helped him. When the narrator suggested inviting Freddie home for lunch, his wife casually said, "Freddie is like your friend in the black aeroplane!" That night the narrator decided to record his thoughts in his diary to clear his head. As the narrator, write the diary entry.

L-8 Mijbil the Otter		Text-First Flight
Q3	Multiple Choice Questions based on an extract
(A)	For the first twenty-four hours Mijbil was neither hostile nor friendly; he was simply aloof and indifferent, choosing to sleep on the floor as far from my bed as possible. The second night Mijbil came on to my bed in the small hours and remained asleep in the crook of my knees until the servant brought tea in the morning, and during the day he began to lose his apathy and take a keen, much too keen, interest in his surroundings. I made a body-belt for him and took him on a lead to the bathroom, where for half an hour he went wild with joy in the water, plunging and rolling in it, shooting up and down the length of the bathtub underwater, and making enough slosh and splash for a hippo. i	“Mijbil was neither hostile nor friendly; he was simply aloof and indifferent...” From the actions of the given set of friends, choose the person who’s behaviour is likely to resemble Mijbil’s. e) Akanksha rudely tells her best friend to stop calling. f) Piyush was amicable since the day he walked into his new classroom. g) Rishabh became nasty as soon as he started earning money. h) Urvashi was distant for a while after losing her grandmother. ii	Select the option that correctly puts the following events in correct order. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Maxwell planned to take Mijbil to the bathroom. 2. Mijbil slept at a significant distance from Maxwell’s bed. 3. Mijbil immensely enjoyed playing in water. 4. Mijbil slept in much closer vicinity of the author as opposed to the previous night. a) 1, 3, 4, 2 b) 3, 1, 2, 4 c) 2, 4, 1, 3 d) 4, 3, 1, 2 iii	The words “slosh and splash” are examples of the onomatopoeic words that go together phonetically-resembling the sound that they describe. Choose the option that DOES NOT fit the given description. a) hip hop b) bow wow c) tick tock d) pitter patter

- c) Option (3)
- d) Option (4)

(B) When I returned, there was an appalling spectacle. There was complete silence from the box, but from its airholes and chinks around the lid, blood had trickled and dried. I whipped off the lock and tore open the lid, and Mij, exhausted and blood-spattered, whimpered and caught at my leg. He had torn the lining of the box to shreds; when I removed the last of it so that there were no cutting edges left, it was just ten minutes until the time of the flight, and the airport was five miles distant. I put the miserable Mij back into the box, holding down the lid with my hand. I sat in the back of the car with the box beside me as the driver tore through the streets of Basra like a ricocheting bullet.

i Choose the speaker that uses the phrase 'appalling spectacle' correctly.

iii	Read the statements given below: Statement 1 - 'Lomov is looking to marry.' Statement 2 - 'Lomov is looking to marry Natalya.' Bring out the difference between the two statements and explain what it tells you about Lomov.
Q12	Answer in 100-120 words (beyond text and across texts)
i	Though the play revolves around three people, Russian society emerges as an important character through the ongoings of the play and the thoughts and interactions of its characters. Imagine yourself to be a historian who has been invited to speak about nineteenth century upper class Russian society. Based on your reading of the play, how might you describe it? Support your evaluation with instances from the text.
ii	Look at the given matrimonial advertisement published in the Morning Post (newspaper) in December 1822. It was fairly common practice in the nineteenth century for gentlemen and ladies to seek courtship and matrimony by placing a suitable advertisement.  MATRIMONY.—A Middle-aged Gentleman, of a respectable rank in life, who enjoys an income of Two Hundred Pounds a Year, with fair expectations, and who might otherwise offer a favourable account of himself, wishes to MARRY. The intimations of any Lady, of unblemishable character, of an age not less than thirty, nor more than thirty-seven, and of an income at least equal to his own (as his rank requires such), having a similar wish, and condescending to favour him, will be received with due respect, and attended to with strict honour and inviolable secrecy. Letters to be addressed, post paid, S. H., No. 8, Park-place, Kennington.

a) Based on your reading of the play and an understanding of the characters, what details would Lomov provide (and specifically leave out) in a matrimonial advertisement to find a bride like Natalya?

b) Think of what might make Chubukov shortlist Lomov's advertisement if he were scanning the matrimonial section of the newspaper.

FOOTPRINTS WITHOUT FEET

L-1 A Triumph of Surgery	Text-Footprints Without Feet
Q 3	Multiple Choice Questions based on an extract
(A)	The entire staff was roused and maids rushed in and out bringing his day bed, his night bed, favourite cushions, toys and rubber rings, breakfast bowl, lunch bowl, supper bowl. Realising that my car would never hold all the stuff, I started to drive away. As I moved off, Mrs Pumphrey, with a despairing cry, threw an armful of the little coats through the window. I looked in the mirror before I turned the corner of the drive; everybody was in tears. Out on the road, I glanced down at the pathetic little animal gasping on the seat by my side. I patted the head and Tricki made a brave effort to wag his tail. "Poor old lad," I said. "You haven't a kick in you but I think I know a cure for you."
i	What might the atmosphere of the household in the above extract signify? a) Mrs Pumphrey's status in society reflected in Tricki's lifestyle. b) The staff's love for Tricki, which matched that of Mrs. Pumphrey c) The grand life of comforts and luxuries that Tricki enjoyed. d) Mrs. Pumphrey's indulgence and anxiety acted upon by the staff.

(A)	Max was slender, a little less than tall, with features that suggested slightly the crafty, pointed countenance of a fox. There was about him — aside from the gun — nothing especially menacing. “The report,” he murmured. “The report that is being brought to you tonight concerning some new missiles. I thought I would take it from you. It will be safer in my hands than in yours.” Ausable moved to an armchair and sat down heavily. “I’m going to raise the devil with the management this time, and you can bet on it,” he said grimly. “This is the second time in a month that somebody has got into my room through that nuisance of a balcony!”
i	Owning a gun gave a menacing impression to Max’s character because a) a gun is only used by police officials. b) he was carrying it without any official license. c) a gun has a threatening implication. d) the gun was particularly huge.

(A)	How foolish people are when they own valuable things, Horace thought. A magazine article had described this house, giving a plan of all the rooms and a picture of this room. The writer had even mentioned that the painting hid a safe! But Horace found that the flowers were hindering him in his work. He buried his face in his handkerchief. Then he heard a voice say from the doorway, “What is it? A cold or hay fever?” Before he could think, Horace said, “Hay fever,” and found himself sneezing again. The voice went on, “You can cure it with a special treatment, you know, if you find out just what plant gives you the disease. I think you’d better see a doctor, if you’re serious about your work. I heard you from the top of the house just now.”

Q3	Multiple Choice Questions based on an extract
(A)	“I didn’t get any real results,” he said. “But I went ahead and showed that I had tried the experiment. This time I won.” The next year his science fair project was testing the theory that viceroy butterflies copy monarchs. The theory was that viceroys look like monarchs because monarchs don’t taste good to birds. Viceroys, on the other hand, do taste good to birds. So, the more they look like monarchs, the less likely they are to become a bird’s dinner. Ebright’s project was to see whether, in fact, birds would eat monarchs. He found that a starling would not eat ordinary bird food. It would eat all the monarchs it could get.
